Terms and Conditions (T&Cs)

1. The regulations set out in the German Civil Code [BGB] apply to the Contract. The Contract must be concluded in writing. All additional agreements and amendments must be made in writing.
2. When the host sends a reservation to the guest, the Contract is considering binding if the guest accepts the reservation within the time allowed. Once a binding reservation has been made, we request a deposit of 20% of the total amount owing within 8 days. If the deposit is not received on time, we must unfortunately assume that the reservation is to be cancelled and we will endeavour to re-let the holiday apartments. The remaining payment is due 14 days before arrival. Should the Contract to rent the apartment be concluded in a shorter period before the holiday apartments are handed over to the guest, the whole amount owing is due for payment immediately.
3. Should guests not use the rented apartments, they must still pay the agreed sum. However, the host may offset the expenditure saved to the tune of 20%. The host undertakes in good faith to re-let the unused apartment if possible in order to avoid losses. Should it be possible to let the holiday apartments to other tenants, the host will invoice the guest with a handling fee of 50 euros and also if applicable compensation for damage equalling the difference between the previous higher and now lower re-letting price. The host recommends the guest purchases cancellation insurance.
4. Liability for items our guests bring with them is governed by the statutory provisions.
5. The guest undertakes to treat the holiday apartments, furniture and fixtures and fittings carefully. Guests must provide compensation for damage to objects, or to the holiday apartments themselves, that they have caused. In the case of breakage or damage, the current costs of repurchasing such objects will be the gauge used.
6. The guest must report to the host any defects in the object let out immediately. Guests must provide compensation for damage caused because they have not reported such damage promptly.
7. Should keys be lost, the lock barrels will be exchanged for security reasons. Guests must pay costs incurred for such exchange.
8. Several persons acting as tenants are joint and several debtors for all obligations incurred as a result of the Rental Contract.
9. Out of consideration for the other guests, smoking in the holiday apartments is not permitted.
10. The holiday apartments may not be released to third parties.
11. The holiday apartments will be available from 4 p.m. on the day of arrival. Keys will be handed over by arrangement. Before you arrive, please call us in time. On departure the holiday apartments must be handed over in a proper state to the landlord or a representative of the landlord. Guests must leave the apartments by 10 a.m.
12. The venue for any disputes arising from this Contract is Celle, Germany.
13. Should a clause be or become invalid the validity of the other clauses in the Contract shall not be affected.

Enjoy your stay with us.
